

The band

The members of the Marína Ósk's band, Marína Ósk Kvartett, are all great friends and all share a deep passion for the warm and embracing jazz tradition. Marína got to know the band members during her master studies at the Royal College of Music in Stockholm.

Double bass player and composer Johan Tengholm is without a doubt one of the most interesting musicians on the Swedish jazz. At the age of 22, in 2020, he graduated from the Royal Collage of Music in Stockholm and is now a rising star among the many great bass players in Sweden, playing with plenty of the top bands and musicians. He released his debut album, Migration, in November 2021, consisting of only original compositions. Johan is also a co-founder of the Swedish record label, TengTones.

TengTones' other founder, Erik Tengholm, has been one of the most active jazz trumpet players in Sweden over the past years. He plays with many of the hottest bands, as well as being a band leader, not only as a trumpet player, but also as composer and arranger. Erik has a wide aesthetic palette, playing all sorts of jazz music, all the way from early New Orleans music, to the modern sounds of today. Erik was recently awarded the Ola Carlsson Scholarship with the motivation: "Erik is a stunningly musical and skillful jazz trumpet player, who with exquisite feeling moves freely between different styles of jazz". Erik's debut album, Stories From the Club, was released in November 2021, featuring the amazing Erik Tengholm Quintet.

Icelandic pianist, composer and vocalist, Anna Gréta Sigurðardóttir, is one of the most exciting artists in Scandinavia. She holds numerous awards for her contribution to the Swedish jazz scene, including the Monica Zetterlund grant and Jazz Club Fasching Society Award. She released her debut, "Nightjar in the Northern Sky" on Act Music in 2021, for which she received two awards at the Icelandic Music Awards in 2022. She is currently based in Stockholm where she is one of the pillars of the Swedish jazz scene.
